LETTERS from Potzdam adviſe, that his Pruſſian Majeſty continues dangerouſly ill.

Paris, Oct. 16, N. S. By Letters from the Army of the Allies in Italy, dated the 4th of this Month, we have an Account, that on the 27th paſt they left the Camp at Guaſtalla, and marched to Dozolo, where they lay till the 3d Inſtant, and then moved to the Camp of Commeſſagio, where theſe Letters left them. Part of the Right of the Army was extended along the Oglio to its Outlet, and the King of Sardinia had his Quarters at Sabionetto. Count Konigſegg having paſſed the Po with his whole Army the 26th of September, poſted them facing that River, but on the 29th he changed his Ground, and extended his Right towards Montanara, and poſted his Left at Borgoforte, where he fixed his Head Quarters, and by this Situation the Army of the Imperialiſts have the Foſſa Maeſtra before them. On the 30th, the King of Sardinia and the Marſhal de Coigny detached the Marqueſs de Maillebois with ſix Squadrons and ten Battallions to form the Siege of Mirandola. The laſt Letters from the Army on the Rhine are of the 5th Inſtant, and import, that they continued encamped at Offenbourg, where they were in Barracks; but that Prince Eugene having ſent away the greateſt Part of his Troops to go into the Winter Quarters aſſigned them, and the Marſhal d'Aſfeldt having received the King's Orders for putting his Troops alſo into Winter Quarters, was beginning to ſeparate his Army. Prince Eugene ſet out on the 2d Inſtant for Vienna. The Troops he has left on the Frontier for the Winter are to be commanded by Prince Alexander of Wirtemberg, who will have his Head Quarters at Hailbron. The Duke of Aremberg is to command in the Black Forreſt, and Count Seckendorff at Heydelberg, where ſome new Fortifications are making. Prince Eugene had cauſed three Redoubts in the Iſle of Neckerau, to be begun before he left the Army, which Redoubts are to be furniſhed with Cannon; and left Orders for continuing the Lines which are to extend from the Hill above Heidelberg to Brilh, which is a League and a half from Manheim.

Kenſington, October 12.

Yeſterday being the Anniverſary of their Majeſties Coronation, there was a numerous and ſplendid Appearance at Court of the Nobility, Foreign Miniſters, and other Perſons of Diſtinction. At Noon the Guns in St. James's Park and at the Tower were fired; and at Night there were Bonfires, Illuminations, Ringing of Bells, and all publick Demonſtrations of Joy throughout London and Weſtminſter.
